Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence.

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 16th May 1953

S.R.O. 209.—The following bye-laws for regulation of the use and occupation of out-houses in Bungalow compounds of Pachmarhi Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Pachmarhi, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28) and (30) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (11 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-Laws for regulation of the use and occupation of out-houses in Bungalow compounds in Pachmarhi Cantonment.

1. "Out houses" mean quarters built in a compound of a bungalow, expressly built for the use of the servants of the occupant of the bungalow.
2. With the exception of the aforesaid bungalow or out-houses no other building in the compound shall be used for residential purposes.
3. No out-houses in a bungalow compound shall be occupied by persons other than the bona-fide servants of the occupier of the bungalow and their families.
4. No servants quarters or other out-houses of an unoccupied bungalow shall be in occupation of any person other than the mall, sweeper and choukidar of the bungalow and their families, whose names shall be intimated by the owner to the Executive Officer.
5. If a bungalow is divided or let out in separate portions, the out-houses shall be proportionately occupied by the servants of the occupiers only, whose names shall be forwarded to the Executive Officer by their employers.
6. If the occupier of a bungalow or portion thereof has more out-houses than he requires, the occupier or the owner shall not let or hire the vacant out-houses to any person without the previous sanction of the Cantonment Board.
7. A breach of any of these bye-laws shall, on conviction by a magistrate be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

[No. 12/43/G/L&C/52/2122/LC/D(O&C).]

S.R.O. 210.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 16 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), the Central Government is pleased to fix the 15th June, 1953, as the date on which the casual election shall be held in Mhow Cantonment to fill up an existing vacancy.
